Collecting Ribbons Is More Competitive Than Ever

There have always been those at conventions who take it upon themselves to collect as many ribbons as they can, but this year it's a -Duplicate ribbons do not competition. The Ribbon Game is on, and whoever collects the most ribbons wins! There will be more ribbons available than ever thanks to the many folks who ordered ribbons on Arisia's website. The winner of this contest will receive a significantly large and impressive ribbon and two tickets to the February Science Fiction Film Festival! Here are a few tips:

-As per request, Back-up Project Ribbons do not count.

-Acquire ribbons at parties, fan tables, by volunteering, and people giving them out.

-Secure long trains of ribbons with tape on the back.

Good luck everyone, and happy hunting!

New This Year: Food Trucks!

Let's give a grand welcome to the Boston food trucks! There are five trucks; The Taco Truck, Roxy's Grilled Cheese, Mei Mei Street Kitchen, Benny's Crepe Cafe, and Boston's Baddest Burgers.

Get ready for Mei Mei and Roxy's to serve on Saturday from 11am-4:30pm! The food trucks will be located through the doors just past

Do A Good Deed and Give Blood

If you haven't in previous years, this year is the perfect time to donate to the blood drive. One person's donated blood can save up to three lives. Your blood could also be used in curefinding research. Do your good deed by seeing the Naughty Nurses from 2:30 to 7:30pm on Friday for the Children's Hospital and from 9am to 5pm on Saturday for Mass General Hospital.

the Grand Ballroom on the concourse level, with a seating area just inside the doors for convenience and comfort in the chilly weather. Make sure to check back here to read what trucks will be serving when. Bon appetite!

You don't need to be an Olympic athlete, so just give it a try. If you cannot give yourself, encourage someone else to help. You can sign up by texting John at (617)943-4399, going to half-pints.childrenshospital.org, or by visiting the blood drive table next to the elevators in the main lobby.
